

Africa Week Lecture

by Philip Emeagwali and African Students Association

An Africa Day lecture by Philip Emeagwali goes beyond the issues of poverty, AIDS and war, to learning from a living historic figure who walked the talk as well as hearing his vision for Africa in the 21st century.

This well-honed presentation will be delivered with humor and rock solid content.

Philip Emeagwali, a creative contrarian renown for contradicting conventional wisdom will captivate your audience with thought-provoking stories?

Philip Emeagwali [3rd, bottom right] is ranked history's 35th greatest with Mandela as #1 and M.L.K. Jr. as #7.

Visit CONFERENCESPEAKERS.ORG for video, fee and more info.

Africa Day Speaker – PHILIP EMEAGWALI

Postage Stamps Honor
Supercomputer Genius

"I have never come across such a speech concentrated on solving the problems of Africa." - Aster Sagai, London

"Sir, I must say that your speech on that faithful day have enabled me to rediscover myself, and also reminds me that Africa has great potentials that can make Africa rise to its glory." - Sunday Isoni

"Indeed Philip Emeagwali did give us great wisdom in his September 23, 2006 speech delivered at University of Alberta, entitled 'Ideas, Not Money, Alleviate Poverty'" – Momodou Sabally

How to book Emeagwali

Simply phone 202-203-8724 or e-mail donita@emeagwali.com or complete his booking form at <http://emeagwali.org>

“One of the great minds of the Information Age”

- Bill Clinton

“A Father of the Internet”

- CNN

“Unsung hero ... The Web owes much of its existence to Philip Emeagwali”

- TIME magazine