

“Letters to Emeagwali” Project Kicks Off

Dear Friends of Emeagwali:

Dedicated fans are in the process of compiling a book of letters to and from Philip Emeagwali and they are asking you to submit your letter of appreciation for his contributions. In particular, they are looking for letters that exhibit depth and breadth and show a range of emotions that will inspire and motivate the readers to become their best. Contributions can be in e-mails, hand written letters, poems, drawings (i.e. sketches and cartoons), photographs etc.

Show your true “fanship” towards Philip Emeagwali by contributing to our book of letters to him.

The book will be published as an e-book and a bound hardcover. When the book is published, a complimentary copy will be sent to each contributor. Also, the royalties from the first five years will be paid to those letter writers that we can contact. The royalties of those that we cannot contact will be donated to charity.

Please post your letters at our guestbook emeagwali.us or email them to donita@emeagwali.com.

Regards, Donita Brown

Dale, Philip and Ijeoma Emeagwali.

Guidelines for the "Dear Professor Emeagwali" book of letters:

Start the letter with "Dear Prof. Emeagwali". It is an open letter from you to all readers. Please share a your experience of how you were inspired by the life and work of Philip Emeagwali. Your message will be passed on to next-generation of visitors to emeagwali.com. Please do not sermonize. Overall the letter should transcend daily drivel speaking and uplift the recipient. The subject of your letters can be as varied and unique as you like but no offensive or irrelevant material will be accepted. Don't forget to tell us about yourself in a manner that you would like to be remembered by posterity!

Please forward this information to someone else you know that would be interested in submitting a letter. It will take at least a year to publish this book, but visit often for release updates! Once again, thank you for your heart-felt contributions and for sharing your thoughts with others.
